DEFENDANT'S FIRST AND UNOPPOSED

22 _____
Because Martin O'Malley became the Commissioner of Social Security on December
20, 2023, Martin O'Malley should be substituted for Kilolo Kijakazi as the defendant in this suit.
Fed. R. Civ. P. 25(d). No further action need be taken to continue this suit by reason of the last sentence of section 205(g) of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

1 Defendant, Martin O’Malley, Commissioner of Social Security (Defendant), respectfully
2 requests that the Court grant this unopposed motion to extend the time for Defendant to respond
3 to Plaintiff’s Motion to Remand (Dkt. No. 14, filed on March 18, 2024), currently due on April
4 17, 2024, by 30 days, through and including May 17, 2024. Defendant further requests that all
5 subsequent deadlines be extended accordingly. This is Defendant’s first request for an extension
6 of time to file a response.

7 Good cause exists for this extension. Defendant respectfully requests this additional 8 time because Defendant’s counsel is experiencing an extremely heavy workload, despite due
9 diligence. In addition to this case, the undersigned is preparing the Commissioner’s response
10 briefs for multiple district court cases with concurrent deadlines. Plus, the undersigned is 11 assigned to train and review the briefing prepared by an attorney recently hired by this counsel’s 12 office. This case is being used as a case for such training. An additional fourteen days would 13 provide the undersigned with the time to thoroughly review the new attorney’s draft brief before 14 filing. For this reason, Defendant’s counsel requires additional time to properly address the 15 issues raised in Plaintiff’s Motion to Remand. This request is made in good faith and with no
16 intention to unduly delay the proceedings.

17 Counsel for Defendant advised counsel for Plaintiff of the need for this extension on April 9, 18 2024. Counsel for Plaintiff confirmed that Plaintiff does not object to this request.

1 It is therefore requested that Defendant be granted an extension of time to respond to 2 Plaintiff's Motion to Remand, through and including May 17, 2024.

3 DATED: April 10, 2024

4 Respectfully submitted,

5 JASON M. FRIERSON
